James Hienton has successfully helped his clients with their business and tax needs over the course of his lengthy legal career. To best serve his substantial client base, Jim has focused his practice on the mergers, acquisitions, and dispositions of businesses; the formation and structuring of business entities; commercial transactions; and providing corporate and business advice.

In addition to his business and finance practice, Jim is a certified tax specialist with the Arizona State Bar Association. This specialty has enabled Jim to provide the optimum counsel to clients in relation to their business legal needs. Among those who have benefited from Jim's experience are auto dealerships, financial institutions, and rental equipment companies.

Jim's practice also extends to estate planning and working with non-profit organizations. His knowledge as a certified tax specialist has allowed him to help clients structure their estate plans or non-profit organizations to their maximum benefit. Jim has represented numerous clients in various tax courts.

Jim received his L.L.M. from Washington University College of Law in 1977 and his J.D. from Arizona State University College of Law in 1975. He graduated from the University of Arizona with High Distinction in 1972.

Jim has lent his time to several community associations, including Valley Leadership and Arizona Theatre Company.
